

Rwanda: Conflict and Memory

December 30, 2015 to January 15, 2016

This course provides a multidisciplinary approach to understanding the 1994 genocide in Rwanda, and the post-genocide restoration and reconciliation work being done at both national and local levels. During the trip we will visit:

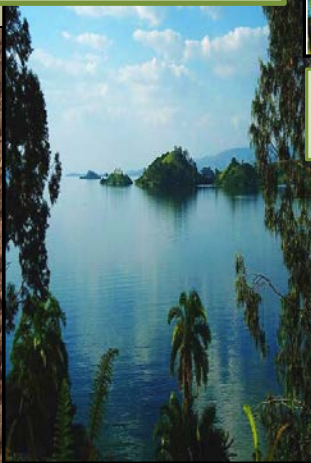

- Historical sites
- Genocide memorials
- Grass roots reconciliation initiatives
- Akagera Safari Park
- Local farmers
- Rwandan National University
- Public officials
- NGOs working on reconciliation, healing, community development, and sustainable agriculture

Inyambo Sacred Cattle

Land of a Thousand Hills

Lake Kiko

King's Palace, Nyanza

Conflict, Memory, and Reconciliation:

IC 261 - 3 Credits

$4,500.00

For further information, contact:

Celia Cook-Huffman, Peace and Conflict Studies

cookhu@juniata.edu

Alison Fletcher, History fletcher@juniata.edu