The Juniata Curriculum

I. First-Year Experience: Students take part in a two-semester course sequence totaling 7 credits:

First Semester: First-Year Composition (3); First-Year Foundations (1)

Second Semester: First-Year Seminar (3)

II. Ways of Knowing: This requirement helps students strengthen their ability to understand the world from different vantage points. Students must take a minimum of 3 credits in each area, met through a single course or a sequence of courses. All Ways of Knowing courses have First-Year Composition as a prerequisite or corequisite. With POE Advisor approval, students can waive one Ways of Knowing course in a category that is inherent in the student's POE. Each Ways of Knowing course must have a different departmental prefix. Students must complete two Ways of Knowing courses by the end of their fourth semester.

	Course prefix and #	Completion Date
• Creative Expression	_____	_____
• Formal Reasoning	_____	_____
• Humanistic Thought	_____	_____
• Social Inquiry	_____	_____
• Scientific Process	_____	_____

III. Connections: These courses are team-taught by two or more instructors with different disciplinary perspectives addressing a common topic. Students must complete two Ways of Knowing courses and be in their third or fourth year to take a Connections course.

Connections _____

IV. Self and the World: These courses foster the capacities necessary for well-being and responsible citizenship. These capacities include ethical reflection, a sense of purpose, knowledge of how diversity shapes the American experience, and knowledge about global challenges and cultural diversity. All Self and the World courses have First-Year Composition as a prerequisite or corequisite. This category includes four requirements:

1. U.S. Experience (at least 3 credits met in a single course or through a course sequence)

U.S. Experience _____

2. Ethical Responsibility (at least 3 credits met in a single course or through a course sequence)

Ethical Responsibility _____

3. Global Engagement (at least two courses of the following types in any combination that totals at least 6 credits) Semester- or year-long study abroad at a Juniata-approved site fulfills this entire requirement.

- World Language Study: These courses focus on communication in a world language.
- Short-Term Study Abroad: These courses focus on a study abroad experience, a portion of which includes a pre-departure component, and a portion of which must be completed after study abroad to promote reflection on the learning experience. The study abroad experience must be linked to a Juniata course that together with the travel portion totals at least 3 credits.
- Human Cultures & Challenges: These courses focus on a people and culture outside of the U.S. or a global challenge.

	Course prefix and #	Completion Date
Global Engagement Course 1	_____	_____
Global Engagement Course 2	_____	_____

4. Local Engagement (course or experience with direct interactions, collaboration, and/or service in a local community, fulfilled through a single course or an approved internship or co-curricular experience)
